

Manuel Göttsching live in Berlin!

To celebrate the 25. anniversary of his composition E2-E4,
Manuel Göttsching will perform it

LIVE at BERGHAIN,

Berlin's hottest venue.

The concert will take place on 12th December 2006,

the very day when this music was born -
25 years ago in Manuel's studio near the KaDeWe.

Attention! It is a TUESDAY, not one of the weekend's days. Doors will open at 9 pm (21:00), the concert starts at 10 pm (22:00). Before and after Manuel's performance the very successful AME will entertain you with its music. You can party with us, and maybe also talk to Manuel...

Watch out for your reservation in time as the interest in the event is big, the tickets limited and cheap; because of the E2-E4's anniversary we have decided to make them only 15 Euro!
